Suit Brought to Compel Release of Mrs. Frank E.

Mrs. Weathers, who was formerly Mrs. Ella H. Peck, came to Raleigh Mrs. Weathers, who was formerly Mrs. Ella H. Peck, came to Raleigh two years ago from Berlin, Ontario, Canada, with her aged father, who was in search of health. He died hera then Mrs. Peck went to reside with Mrs. Rogers, on Wilmington Street, and made many friends, several of whom are to appear as witnesses in her behalf to-morrow. Mrs. Peck was married to Mr. Weathers in January. At the annual meeting of the executive committee of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League, just held here, the resignation of R. F. Beasies as chairman was accepted, and Archibald Johnson, of Thomasville, was elected in his stead. The report of Superintendent R. L. Davis for the year was read and his recommendations received. These are that the league indorse and urge the passage of the Webb-McComber interstate liquor shipment, died at Rex Hospital after not having fully regained consciousness at any time since the accident Tuesday evening, when he silpped 'nto the undertaker's through morbid curi-outly to see the dead bodies of the solity to see the dead bodies of the webb-McComber interstate inquor subment bill and send delegates to Washington on December 16-19 in its interest; call upon the Legislature at its approaching session for the passage of a State-wide search and seisure law, with proper sefeguards as to affidavits; an act to require the express companies and other common carriers to report to some county officer at stated intervals all liquors received and have the county officer publish these reports in the county officer publish these reports in the county press under regular advertising contracts. He also commended the Lincoln-Lee Legion department of the Anti-Saloon League to the pastors and Sunday school workers and urged co-operation. He appealed for more liberal support for the Anti-Saloon League work. Superinent bill and send delegates to Wash-

Anti-Saloon League work. Superin-tendent Davis's financial report aboved an indebtedness of $1,276, $825 of this being due three employes. He re-ported $5,236 outstanding in unpaid The North Carolina Supreme Court under advisement the noted case of the State Board of Education Case of the State Board of Education Linwoods vs. R. C. Remick, involving the title storf brick to the 45,000-acre belt of swamp lands Avenue, to

Eckman's Alterative

of Mrs. Frank E.

Weathers.

Weathers.

PLACED THERE BY HUSBAND

Annual Meeting of Anti-Saloon League Executive Committee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., November 21.—Alteging that Frank E. Weathers, a well-known Raleigh man, had caused his wife to be conlined in the State Hospital without cause, Mrs. Lydia W.
Rogers, a prominent Raleigh woman, this afternoon suee out a writ of habeas corpus before Associate Justice George H. Brown, of the Supreme Court room to-morrow morning.

Mrs. Weathers was placed in the State Hospital on October 31 lasts on the affidance on the Supreme Court room to-morrow morning.

Mrs. Weathers was placed in the State Hospital on October 31 lasts on the affidance of the Supreme Court room to-morrow morning.

Mrs. Weathers was placed in the State Hospital on October 31 lasts on the affidance of the Supreme Court room to-morrow morning.

Mrs. Weathers was placed in the State Hospital on October 31 last on the affidance of the Supreme Court room to-morrow morning.

Mrs. Weathers was placed in the state Hospital on October 31 last on the affidance of the Supreme Court room to-morrow morning.

Mrs. Weathers was placed in the state Hospital on October 31 last on the affidance of the Supreme Court room to-morrow morning.

Mrs. Weathers was placed in the state Hospital on October 31 lasts on the affidance of the Supreme Court room to-morrow morning.

Mrs. Weathers was placed in the state Hospital on October 31 lasts on the affidance of the Supreme Court room to-morrow morning.

Mrs. Weathers was sane then and is sand now, and ought to be released.

Mrs. Weathers, who was formerly Mrs. Ella H. Peck, came to Kaleigh in Peckenser, and write to Eckman's allowed the Peckenser.

Mrs. Weathers, who was formerly Mrs. Ella H. Peck, came to Kaleigh in Peckenser.

Mrs. Weathers, who was formerly Mrs. Ella H. Peck, came to Kaleigh in Peckenser.

Mrs. Weathers, who was formerly Mrs. Ella H. Peck, came to Kaleigh in Peckenser.

Mrs. Weathers, who was formerly Mrs. Ella H. Peck, came to Kal hishment, died at Nex Hospital arter not having fully regained consciousness at any time since the accident Tuesday evening, when he slipped 'nto the undertaker's through morbid curiosity to see the dead bodies of the victims of the Norlina wreck. Young Geans leaves a wife, to whom he was on a postal. In every sack of Liggett & Myers

Great Interest Already Being Manifested in Municipal Politics.

ALSO OUT FOR FEDERAL JOBS

Ten Days' Campaign to Raise $75,000 for Y. M. C. A. Begins.

> Times-Dispatch Bureau, 5 Bollingbroke Street, Phone 1845, Petersburg, Va., November 21.

Petersburg, Va., November 21.
There is almost as much interest in mun'cipal politics in Petersburg to-day as if an election were close at hand, instead of months away. There are three candidates in the field for City Treasurer, viz.; Wm. E. Ramey, the incumbent; F. Geraid Stratton and C. incumbent; F. Geraid Stratton and C. L. Barkedale; two candidates for Col L Barkadale; two candidates for Collector of City Taxes—Wm. H. Camp, the incumbent, who has held the office for many years, and Councilman J. J.
Nelms; two candidates for City Sergeant—John B. Evans, the incumbent for a number of years, and Robert
for a number of years, and Robert candidate for Commissioner of the Revenue—Hugh R. Smith, the incumbent, and E. P. Goodwyn; three candidates for High Constable—John A. Jailory, the incumbent; P. H. Wells and James D. Twynham. And, as may be imagined, canvassing is brisk. Probably time will develop candidates for other offices.

In the matter of Federal appoint

In the matter of Federal appoint ments under President Wilson's ad-ministration, there are two or more applicants for each of the offices of postmaster and collector of customs the only two positions of importance

. Y. M. C. A. He The ten-days' campaign to raise $75,-000 to build a Young Men's Christian Association began this evening with a supper in the campaign headquarters, at which the principal speak ers were E. R. Barksdale, a prominent business man of Portsmouth, where $100,000 was recently raised for a new association home: General Secretary association home: General Secretary Wm. K. Cooper, of the Washington, D. C., association, and others. The ad-dresses were short and to the point. the final touch was given to the for the campaign, and the working teams start out on their mission, enthusiastic and confident of success. The feeling in the community is that the money will be raised and the home be a certainty The campaign will pegin in earnest to-morrow.

Death of Venerable Woman.

Miss Pattie Smith, an estimable and Miss Pattie Smith, an estimable and much-beloved woman, died yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Ann Smith, on Pine Street. She was the daughter of the late Captain John Smith, of Dinwiddle County, and her funeral will take place to-morrow from Smith's Grove Church in that county.

Smith's Grove Church in that county. She was upwards of eighty years old.

Hastings Court Convictions.

The November term of the Hustings Court was opened this morning, and the grand jury brought in a number of indictments against parties charged with felonies. The case of Robert Brown, negro, charged with the murder of Otis Curtis, colored, was set for the case of Robert Proving on December 2.

der of Otis Curtis, colored, was set for trial on December 2.

Albert Shands, negro, convicted of a third offense of petit larceny, was sentenced to iabor on the public reads for eighteen months.

Nat Ruffin, negro, convicted of lar ceny from the person, was sentenced to three years' work on the public

Mott Valentine, negro, got a sentence of five years on the public roads.

The case of Edward Kemmon, negro

The case of Edward Remmon, nearch, charged with bigamy, was continued to the January term, as were several other minor cases.

W. E. Black, charged with the larceny of $110 from Mrs. Howerton, was discharged on a noise prosequi.

Personal and Otherwise.

The United States government has advised Colonel Asa Rogers that the body of his son, Asa Rogers, who was recently killed in an automobile accident at Manila, will not be shipped to this country until climatic conditions are favorable.

Last evening at 7 o'clock at the resi-dence of the officiating minister, the Rev. F. W. Moore, of the Second Baptist Church, Miss Susie Ruth Wil-Baptist Church, Miss Susie Ruth Williams, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Williams, and Charles Hollow Williams, both of this city, were married. The only attendants were Miss Ethel Williams, sister of the bridgeroom, and J. H. Nimmo.

Secretary Wm. M. Martin, of the Chamber of Commerce, to-day announc-ed that he will be a candidate for the post-office under the Democratic ad-ministration.

Mrs. J. J. Faison, of Waverly, who has been attending at the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Denforth, at the Petersburg Hospital, has returned to her home, accompanied by Mrs. Dan-

Negro Thief Arrested.

George House, alias John Harris, negro, was arrested last evening by Chief Ragiand and Detective Heelan, on the charge of grand larceny. On the 14th of November, Rosenstock & 14th of November, Rosenstock & expressed on approval to Mrs. E. T. Williams, at Stony Creek, two dress suits and a fur, valued at $51. The package was taken out of the express office at Stony Creek by Mr. Williams, carried home, and was tempor to be carried home, and was tempor-arily left in his buggy, while he at-tended to other business. It was stolen by the negro, who brought the goods to Petersburg and pawned them. The goods were all recovered, and the ne-gro, who is from North Carolina, but who has been working on the Coast ne Raiiroad near Stony Creek, will tried for the felony here.

Many Cases Settled by State's Highest Tribunal on Yesterday.

By Judge R. H. Capdwell: The Quigley Painfture Compt Rhe, et als. Circuit Court of To County. Decree affrmed. McGustre et als. vs. Brown, dian, et als. Circuit Court of To County. Decree affrmed. The Supreme Court handed down yesterday the following opinions:
By James Keith, president:
Johnston & Gommet Brothers vn.
Bran & Monteiro. Circuit Court of Wise County. Decree affirmed.
Instersate Fire leasurance Company vn. McFail. Circuit Court of Wise County. Decree amended and affirmed.

Tasewell County. Judgment affirmed.
Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company vs. McCarthy. Circuit Court of Botetourt County. Judgment affirmed.
Taylor vs. Johnson Circuit Court of September. 1912.

Corporation Court of city of noke, Judgment affirmed.

Flint vs. Commonwealth. Corporation Court of city of Buena Vista. Judg-ment affirmed.

Milton et als. vs. Kite et als, Circui

Court of Page County, Decree affirmed Chesapeake and Obio Railway Com-pany vs. Mathews, Circuit Court of Augusta County, Judgment affirmed

Spangler vs. Ashwell, et als. Circult Court of Bedford County. Decree re-

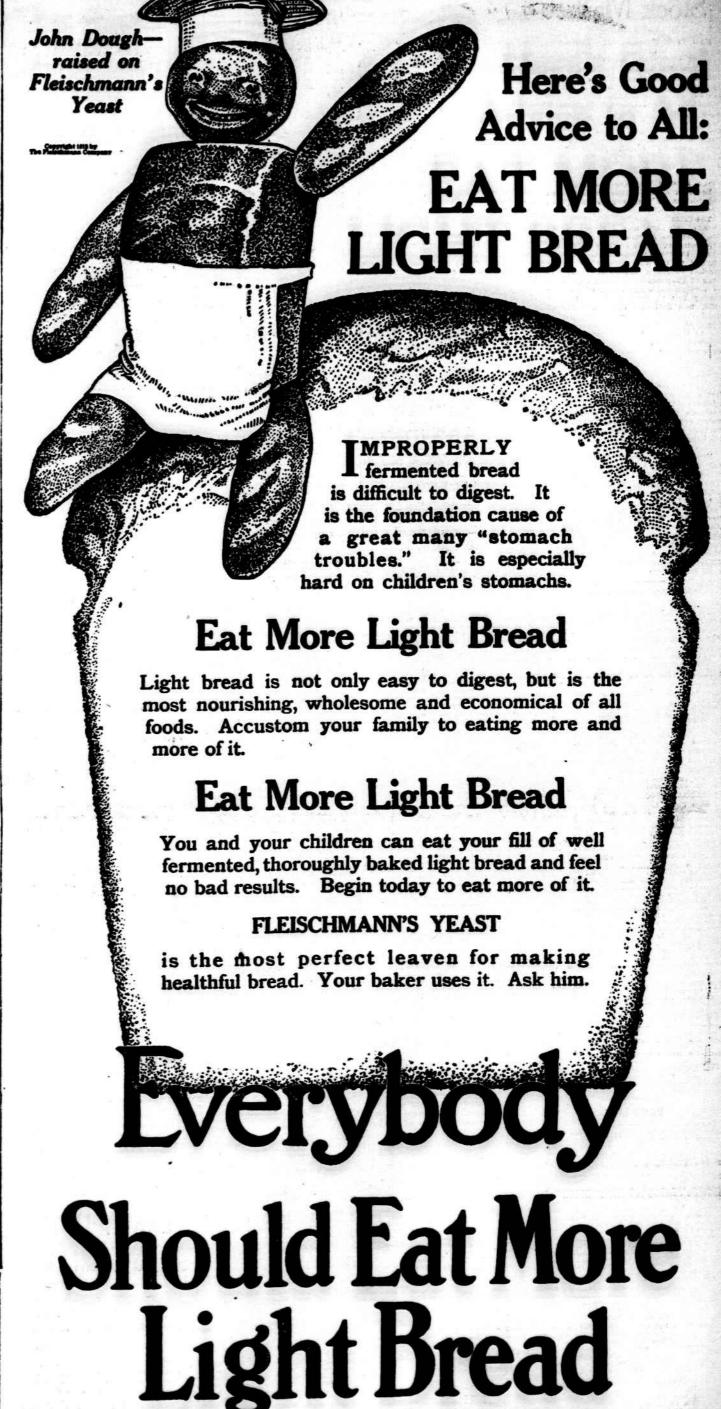

Senseny's Administrators vs. Boyd's Administrators. Circuit Court of Fred. crick County. Decree affirmed.

Children's School Shoes, $1.00 ALBERT STEIN Scott vs. James, Secretary, etc. Law and Equity Court of city of Richmond. Decree affirmed. (Decided at Staunton, September, 1912.

By Judge John A. Buchanan. Davis vs. Marshall, Circuit Court of Rockingham County Decree affirmed. City of Lynchburg vs. Mitchell, et l. Circuit Court of Amberst County.

Clinchfield Coal Company vs. Sutherland. Rehearing refused.

In seven months.-W. T. De Lynchburg, Va.

Doubly Glad is the Man Who Smokes Dukes Kixture Glad to smoke this pure old Virginia and North Carolina bright leaf - with its natural tobacco taste. Aged and stemmed and then granulated. Tucks quickly in the pipe-rolls easily into a cigarette. With each sack a book of cigarette papers And smokers are glad to get the free present coupons enclosed in each 5c sack. These coupons are good for a great variety of pleasing articles - cameras, talking machines, balls, skates, safety razors, china, furniture, toilet articles, etc. Many things that will delight old or young. As a special offer, during November and cember only, we will send our new illustrated catalog of these presents FREE. Just send us